Fall 2015

News and Information for Alumni of St. Charles College, St. Mary's Seminary College and St. Mary's Seminary

St. Mary's Seminary & University awarded a Doctor of Divinity, honoris causa, to Rev. Msgr. Paul G. Cook (SCC'52). Fr. Hurst, Archbishop Lori and Dr. Brent Laytham are pictured with Msgr. Cook at the Graduation ceremony on May 14, 2015.

At graduation in mid-May, St. Mary's awarded honorary doctorates to Msgr. Paul Cook who was the pastor of St. Joseph's Church in Cockeysville, MD for almost forty years, and to Rev. William Calhoun, pastor of Trinity Baptist Church in Baltimore for the same period of time. In the commencement address, Msgr. Cook said, "The parish is where pastoral ministry must be centered today. It must be rooted in the life of the parish. . . It is the emerging role of the pastor to empower God's people. . ."

The honorary doctorates were awarded to ministers who lived out the mission of St. Mary's to provide God's People with pastors after the heart of Christ, the Good Shepherd. The final goal of a priestly formation program is to prepare future priests to be true pastors after the heart of Christ. What happens in the classroom, chapel, community life and pastoral program contributes to the achieving of this goal.

This commencement, this movement to ordination as priests after the heart of Christ, the Good Shepherd is the center of what St. Mary's has always been about. New assignments for the recent graduates are listed in this issue of Class Notes. They have begun their ministry of Word, Sacrament, and Shepherding. They have joined their thousands of priest brothers who are alumni. Our prayers go with them in a special way in these early months of priestly ministry as our prayers go with all of our alumni in their lives as disciples and priests. Ad multos annos!

The 2015-2016 academic year opened with the Mass of the Holy Spirit on August 27, 2015. Archbishop William Lori, Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Baltimore, was the main celebrant and gathered with the community after Mass.

Fr. Thomas R. Hurst, P.S.S., President Rector, SMS'73, spoke at the Mid-Atlantic Congress for Religious Education in Baltimore, "St. Paul: A Model for Evangelization." Also in February, he presented "Preaching and Praying Holy Week" to the Baltimore Clergy, as well as "The Scriptures in Lent" to the Serra Club. He gave a presentation, "Understanding the Gospel of Matthew," to the Permanent Deacon Candidates in Baltimore. Finally, he again spoke to the Serra Club, "The Scriptures in the Easter Season," in March.

Fr. Thomas J. Burke, O.S.S.T., who serves as the Praeses (Dean) of the Ecclesiastical Theological Faculty, visited the University of St. Thomas School of Theology (USTST) at St. Mary's Seminary in Houston, TX, to observe and participate in the Baccalaureate of Sacred Theology examinations from April 22nd to April 25th. USTST at St. Mary's in Houston is affiliated with St. Mary's here in Baltimore which grants the S.T.B. degree in the name of the Holy See.

Msgr. David I. Fulton, SCC'61 and SMS'67, presented at the Presbyteral Convocation in the Diocese of Charleston, SC, The Sacrament of Penance in January. Also in January, he was a presenter at the Presbyteral gathering in the Diocese of Camden, NJ, The Seal of Confession. He also presented to the Presbyteral Convocation in the Archdiocese of Atlanta in May. Msgr.

Fulton had two articles published, "The New Evangelization and Disseminating the Good News," Catechetical Leader, January, 2015, and "Some Thoughts on Suffering," The Priest Magazine, May, 2015.

Dr. Michael Gorman's newest book, Becoming the Gospel: Paul, Participation, and Mission, was published by Eerdmans in April. An interview about the book may be found here: <http://eerdword.com/2015/05/13/five-or-six-questions-with-michael-gorman/>. Dr. Gorman is the recipient of a Henry Luce III Sabbatical Fellowship for 2015-16. He will use the year to research and write a book tentatively called Missional Theosis in the New Testament.

Dr. Paul Seaton wrote an article titled "Papal Globalization," on Benedict XVI's encyclical, Caritas in veritate, which appeared in "Perspectives on Political Science" (April-June 2015, Vol. 44, No. 2), pp. 87-91.

New Faculty

Fr. Brian Carpenter is a 1998 Graduate of the University of Notre Dame with a Bachelors Degree in Science-Business. He attended the University of St. Mary of the Lake/Mundelein Seminary for graduate work, and has an M.Div and S.T.L. in Systematic Theology. Fr. Carpenter was ordained a priest of the Diocese of Rochester, NY in 2009. He served as Parochial Vicar for Peace of Christ Parish in Rochester, NY from 2009-2012, then served as Parochial Vicar at Blessed Trinity and St. Patrick Parishes from 2012-2015. During that time he also taught 5th and 6th Grade religion at St. Patrick School. Fr. Carpenter joined the Society of St. Sulpice in 2015 and joined the faculty at St. Mary's Seminary.

Ximena DeBroeck served as Director of the Office of Worship and Sacramental Formation for the Archdiocese of Baltimore. She taught Scripture and Pastoral Theology at Saint Vincent Seminary, Seton Hill University, and as faculty for the Archdiocese of Baltimore and the Altoona-Johnstown Diocese Permanent Deacon Programs. She was liaison for human formation for the permanent diaconate program in the Greensburg Diocese. Ximena holds a Master of Arts in theology, with concentration in Sacred Scripture, from Saint Vincent Seminary. She has completed her systematic theology doctoral coursework at Duquesne University. Her research focus has been the biblical theology of discipleship, mission, sacraments, and sacrifice. Ximena will be Assistant Professor of Sacred Scripture here at St. Mary's beginning Fall 2015.

Fr. Jerome A. Magat is a Sulpician candidate from the Diocese of Arlington, Virginia. He is a 1995 graduate of the University of Virginia and was ordained in 2002 after having completed his seminary studies at Mt. St. Mary's Seminary in Emmitsburg, MD. Having served in four parishes over 11 years, he joined the Sulpicians in 2013 and spent the last two years at St. Patrick Seminary in Menlo Park, CA, where he served as the director of liturgy and taught courses in homiletics and liturgy. Fr. Magat is also the founder and president of the Guadalupe Free Clinic of Colonial Beach, his diocese's first free medical clinic for the poor.

ONLINE BOOKSTORE <http://stmarys.seminarytextbooks.com>

The St. Mary's Seminary & University Online Bookstore was launched in the fall of 2011. It is now a superb resource not only for current seminarians and E.I. students, but also for St. Mary's alums and others in ministry. An easy-to-use site, you can browse and view categories of books such as "Faculty Publications" and "Faculty Recommendations." Since our bookstore is associated with an Amazon affiliate, when you select books to purchase they are put into your Amazon cart, and the rest is easy.

Senior Priests Retreat

Participants included, from the Diocese of Arlington, Msgr. Frank E. Mahler (SMS'56); Archdiocese of Baltimore, Msgr. Arthur W. Bastress (SCC'45 and SMS'51), Rev. Joseph F. Breighner (SCC'65 and SMS'71), Msgr. Paul G. Cook (SCC'52), Rev. Lawrence F. Kolson (SCC'68, SMSC'70 and SMS'74), Msgr. Richard J. Murphy (SCC'67, PS'65 and SMS'73), Msgr. Alfred E. Smith (SCC'51) and Rev. Joseph R. Wenderoth (SCC'56, PS'58 and SMS'62); Diocese of Brooklyn, Msgr. D. Joseph Finnerty (SMS'63); Diocese of Camden, Rev. Richard Forbes, Rev. Albert E. Harshaw (SCC'67 and SMS'73); and from the Diocese of Raleigh, Msgr. Michael P. Shugrue (SCC'60 and SMS'66).

From May 26-29, 2015, twelve retired, semi-retired, or ordained forty years or more priests gathered at St. Mary's Center for Continuing Formation for a retreat. For more than a dozen years we Senior Priests, Veterans of the Campaign, have made our annual retreat together. We learned experientially that Faith, Hope and Love, wonderfully interwoven, are the driving force of our lives. Under the inspiration of Pope John Paul II and Pope Benedict we advanced toward full communion with God in concrete communion with one another. Our joyful experience has now been confirmed and validated by Lumen Fidei, the first encyclical of Pope Francis. This marvelous document will serve as the basis for our retreat. We anticipate that the Light of Faith will restore the primacy of God in Christ to the center of our lives, both as Church and as individuals. We know that when we dwell on the mystery of our priestly vocation in fraternal companionship rather than as isolated individuals, our insights have become richer and more enduring.

ST. CHARLES COLLEGE AND ST. MARY'S SEMINARY COLLEGE

1940s

❖ Fr. Joseph R. Lang, M.M., SCC'45 and SMS'51, (Washington, DC), has retired and is now residing at the Maryknoll Retirement Village, PO Box 321, Maryknoll, NY 10545.

❖ Charles G. Voelker, SCC'45, wrote in to tell us that he recently celebrated his 89th birthday. He says it has been a good life with many blessings; four living children, one was called home to God at age 23. He has ten grandchildren and five great grandchildren. All of this, he tells us, would not be possible without his wife of 67 years, Margaret. Charles and Margaret are enjoying their time together in Gilbert, AZ. His address is 580 S. Gilbert Rd., #213, Gilbert, AZ 85296-2212.

❖ Msgr. William J. Capik, SCC'49, PS'51 and SMS'55, (Metuchen), is celebrating his 60th anniversary of ordination. Since he celebrated his 55th anniversary, he has been especially active at The Center for Great Expectations, a residential facility in Somerville, which offers a spiritual program of recovery for homeless and pregnant women between the ages of 13 and 40. Most recently, Msgr. Capik completed his term as chairman of the organization's board. Remaining connected to those whose lives he has touched over six decades is of paramount importance to Msgr. Capik, who, despite his retirement, has remained active in several parishes, especially through sacramental duties. In 2003, Msgr. Capik received the inaugural Bishop Edward T. Hughes Leadership in Catholic Education award.

❖ Fr. Bernard R. Ihrie, Jr., SCC'49 and SMS'55, (Washington, DC), is celebrating his 60th anniversary of ordination. After he was ordained to the priesthood in 1955, and over the years, he served as a parochial vicar at the Church of the Little Flower in Bethesda, St. Mark the Evangelist in Hyattsville, and Holy Redeemer in Kensington. Fr. Ihrie retired in 1997 after serving as pastor of St. Philip the Apostle in Camp Springs from 1983-1991, and then serving for six years as a senior priest there. He earlier served as pastor of St. Mary Parish in Bryantown from 1970-1981. A licensed pilot, he served as a chaplain for the U.S. Air Force from 1961-1967, where he was stationed stateside and in Taiwan. Earlier, he served as a chaplain for the District Air National Guard. Now 88, he lives in Edgewater, MD. Once a month, he celebrates Mass and gives a talk for the special religious education program at St. Philip the Apostle Parish.

1950s

❖ Msgr. Martin E. Feild, SCC'53 and SMS'59, (Baltimore), is retiring after 56 years in active ministry as a priest. He will take up residence at Mercy Ridge Retirement Community in Timonium.

❖ A. Richard Gowallis, SCC'57, is now living at 5749 Tradewinds Walkway #1, San Jose, CA 95123.

❖ Fr. Philip M. Breen, SCC'59 and SMS'65, previously pastor of St. Ann, Nashville, has retired. His new address is 9013 Sawyer Brown Road, Nashville, TN 37221.

❖ Msgr. James H. Dubell, SCC'59 and SMS'65, (Trenton), previously pastor of St. Mary of the Lakes Parish in Medford, has retired.

❖ Fr. Thomas J. Maloney, SCC'59 and SMS'65, (Scranton), is now Pastor Emeritus, Our Lady of the Eucharist in Pittston.

1960s

❖ John C. Ford, SCC'62, along with his wife, Sandra Sollod Poster, received the Presidential Humanitarian Award from Neumann University in Philadelphia on April 28, 2015. This award is given to individuals whose lives reflect a commitment to serve humanity and empower the underserved in our society; devotion to religious and family values; dedication to excellence; value for philanthropy and giving back; willingness to take risks in the pursuit of vision; and a demonstrated value for education and a positive intellectual life.

❖ Fr. Joseph T. Graffis, PS'67 and SMS'71, (Louisville), previously pastor of St. Edward Parish, Louisville, has retired after 13 years of service there. He plans to remain active in the ecumenical and interfaith community, and is now living at 4112 Massie Ave., #2, Louisville, KY 40207.

❖ Fr. John J. Scully, SCC'66 and SMS'72, (Trenton), who has been pastor of St. Clement in Matawan for the past 18 years, has retired. He is now living at Villa Vianney, 2301 Lawrenceville Road, Unit 129, Lawrenceville, NJ 08648.

❖ Fr. Robert A. Wozniak, SCC'66 and SMS'72, (Wilmington), has been appointed pastor of Immaculate Heart of Mary in Wilmington.

❖ Fr. Kenneth P. Hallahan, SCC'67 and SMS'73, (Camden), is now Senior Priest and in residence at Sacred Heart, Camden, with ministry to Hispanics at the parishes of Sacred Heart in Camden, St. Josephine Bakhita in Camden and St. Mary in Gloucester.

❖ Fr. Albert E. Harshaw, SCC'67 and SMS'73, (Camden), previously chaplain to Cooper Hospital in Camden, has retired.

❖ Fr. Paul F. Jennings, SCC'68, SMSC'70 and SMS'74, (Wilmington), has been appointed pastor of St. Luke Parish/St. Andrew Mission in Ocean City, MD.

1970s

❖ Timothy J. Donahue, Ph.D., SMSC'73, took the proverbial "year off" before going to theology school which turned into a 38 year career as an educator teaching AP psychology in high school. Along the way, he earned two master's degrees. In 2010, he retired to pursue further graduate work in the area of Biological Psychology. He received his Ph.D. in 2014 after five years as a graduate student and adjunct faculty. He is back to working full-time as an assistant professor of psychology at Virginia Commonwealth University where he also conducts research in behavioral pharmacology on medications used for schizophrenia and depression. He has had some of his work published in a scientific journal and is in the process of submitting his dissertation work for publication as well.

❖ Fr. John Lesnick, SMSC'74 and SMS'78, (Baltimore), previously associate pastor of St. John Parish in Westminster and area health care minister, has been named pastor of St. Joseph Parish in Taneytown.

Over 200 guests joined in prayer before the luncheon on Friends and Family Weekend, March, 2015. This first time event was coordinated by a large seminarian committee.

ST. MARY'S SEMINARY

1950s

❖ Msgr. Cletus J. Hawes, SMS'52, (Dubuque), previously pastor of Our Lady of Seven Dolors Parish, Festina and St. Francis de Sales Parish, Ossian, has retired, while still serving as sacramental priest for St. Mary Parish, Dorchester, St. Mary Parish, Hanover, and St. Patrick Parish, Waukon.

❖ Fr. Donald J. Hawes, SMS'53, (Dubuque), has retired, while still serving as sacramental priest for St. Mary Parish, Dorchester, St. Mary Parish, Hanover, and St. Patrick Parish, Waukon. Fr. Hawes was previously pastor of St. Aloysius Parish, Calmar and St. Wenceslaus Parish, Spillville, and pastoral coordinator of Calmar-Festina-Spillville Catholic Schools and the Christian Family School of Religion, Calmar.

❖ Msgr. John B. Brady, SMS'55, (Washington, DC), celebrates his 60th anniversary of ordination. Each year, the Archdiocese of Washington's Office of Youth Ministry honors someone for their outstanding service in Catholic Scouting by presenting them with the Msgr. John Brady Award. Msgr. Brady, who turned 86 in May, has been called the "father of Catholic Scouting" in the archdiocese. As a teen, he achieved Scouting's highest honor, being named an Eagle Scout, and since 1960, he has served as a priest chaplain for Scouting in the archdiocese. Over the years, Msgr. Brady has celebrated Masses for Scouts in campouts and retreats besides lakes, rivers, forests and near mountains, and he has had the honor of being a chaplain at National Jamborees at the Goshen Scout camps in Virginia.

❖ Fr. John Hynes, SMS'55, (Davenport), is celebrating his 60th anniversary of ordination. On June 4, 1955, he was ordained by Bishop Hayes at Sacred Heart Cathedral. Fr. Hynes was an assistant at St. Mary in Ottumwa, St. Boniface in Clinton and St. Joseph in DeWitt. He was pastor at St. Joseph in Davenport, St. Ann in Long Grove, St. Paul the Apostle in Davenport and Our Lady of the River in LeClaire. He retired in 1998.

❖ Msgr. Peter R. Riani, SMS'55, (Ogdensburg), is celebrating his 60th anniversary of ordination. He was ordained in 1955, and continued studies after ordination, receiving a doctorate in theology at the Pontifical Angelicum University in Rome. Msgr. Riani was assigned as an instructor at Wadhams Hall Seminary-College in 1960 after his early appointments as assistant pastor in Black River and then in Saranac Lake. At the seminary, he was a theology professor, dean of students, director of student activities, academic dean and vice-president before beginning his tenure as president from 1974 to 1982. In 1976, he was named a Prelate of Honor with the title of Monsignor. From 1982 to 1985, he was pastor in Lake Placid and then returned as a faculty member at Wadhams Hall while serving as pastor in Heubelton. In 1993, Msgr. Riani was named pastor in Peru until 1999 when he became pastor in Elizabethtown and Westport, a position he held until his 2012 retirement. He currently resides at St. Alexander's in Morrisonville.

❖ Fr. Henry Szarnicki, SMS'55, (Pittsburgh), is celebrating his 60th anniversary of ordination. He was ordained on June 4, 1955, by Bishop John Dearden at St. Paul Cathedral in Pittsburgh's Oakland neighborhood. Fr. Szarnicki credits his older brother, the late Father Zygmunt Szarnicki, who he said was the greatest influence on his decision to live a life of priestly ministry. He encourages men contemplating the priesthood with the words "Go for it!" Fr. Szarnicki served as a parochial vicar at St. Joseph in Verona, St. Gabriel in Whitehall and Holy Souls in Carnegie. He then pursued graduate studies at the Catholic University in Washington, DC, where he earned his doctorate degree. On his return to Pittsburgh, Fr. Szarnicki was named parochial vicar of St. Catherine in Wildwood and Our Lady of Loreto in Pittsburgh's Brookline neighborhood. He then began several pastoral assignments, at St. Joseph in Verona, Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Natrona Heights, Holy Family in Pittsburgh's Lawrenceville neighborhood, and Immaculate Heart of Mary in the city's

IN MEMORIAM

Former Faculty

✙ Fr. Paul Zilonka, CP, former faculty member, died on August, 15, 2015. He was a native of Baltimore, and a Passionist since 1957. For the past four decades, Fr. Zilonka's biblical-pastoral ministry had included seminary teaching, leading bible study in parishes and many biblical retreats for laity, religious and clergy, both in the U.S. and abroad.

He held several post-graduate degrees from Pontifical Biblical Institute (SSL) and the Gregorian University in Rome (STD). Fr. Zilonka taught in Boston, New York, Jamaica in the West Indies, and at St. Mary's Seminary & University at Roland Park in Baltimore. He taught Biblical Studies here at St. Mary's in both the School of Theology and in the Ecumenical Institute of Theology from approximately 1998-2007. He was an esteemed professor and a good friend to many of us. A Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated at St. Joseph's Monastery Parish Church in Baltimore.

✙ Fr. Louis W. Cheatham, SCC'39 and SMS'45, (Greensburg), died on December 16, 2014, at the age of 94. He was ordained to the priesthood on March 17, 1945, by the late Archbishop Michael J. Curley of Baltimore at the Basilica of the Assumption Cathedral. Fr. Cheatham served for 13 years in the Archdiocese of Washington before accepting a six-year appointment in Verdun, near Montreal, Canada. He began priestly ministry in the Diocese of Greensburg in 1964, and was incardinated in 1971. He served as parochial vicar of St. Joseph Parish in New Kensington. He was pastor of St. Patrick Parish in Brady's Bend, and its former chapel in Sugar Creek; SS. Simon and Jude Parish in Blairsville; St. Peter Parish in Brownsville, and its former chapel in Newell. After retiring in 1995, he continued to celebrate Masses around the diocese, assisting at more than 50 diocesan parishes. A funeral Mass was celebrated at St. Peter Church, Brownsville, with Bishop Lawrence E. Brandt as celebrant and homilist.

✙ Fr. Charles T. Huegelmeier, M.M., SCC'44, died on May 31, 2015, at the age of 90. Born in Baltimore, he entered Maryknoll in 1944 and professed final vows in 1950. He was ordained in 1951. He received his first overseas assignment to Guatemala in 1962 but returned to the United States to teach classical languages at Maryknoll College in Glen Ellyn, IL, from 1965 to 1971. He was then re-assigned to Central America, where he served at San Luis Rey parish in Peten, Guatemala, as well as parishes in Chalatenango, El Salvador, from 1971 to 1980. During that assignment, he also served a three-year term as regional coordinator. Returning to the United States in 1980, he served six years as Society treasurer at Maryknoll headquarters in Ossining. He again returned to Central America in 1986 and resumed ministry in San Luis Rey parish, in Peten, Guatemala. During that time he ministered in more than 90 villages. In 1992 he was sent to Honduras to work in Sagrado Corazon parish in San Pedro Sula. Returning again to the United States in 1994, he worked in the Society archives department until 1997 when he resumed pastoral work in Sagrado Corazon in San Pedro Sula. He retired in 2001 but continued his ministry at various parishes in Westchester County. He moved into Mission St. Teresa's Residence in 2007. A funeral Mass was celebrated at Queen of Apostles Chapel in Maryknoll, NY.

Burial with military honors was in Mount St. Peter Cemetery in Derby.

✙ Fr. John P. Kinter, SCC'61, (Washington, DC), died on April 9, 2015, at the age of 72. He was ordained to the priesthood on May 6, 1967. Over his 48 years in the Archdiocese of Washington, DC, he served in five parishes. In all of his assignments, he was integrally involved in religious education of children and adults, counseling and spiritual direction. Fr. Kinter also served as a full-time chaplain at Greater Southeast Community Hospital, now United Medical Center, where he ministered to patients, families, staff and those in the Nursing Home. A memorial Mass was celebrated at St. Thomas More Catholic Church in Washington, DC.

✙ Fr. Joseph S. Klatka, SMS'67, (Manchester), died on April 13, 2015, at the age of 76. He was ordained to the priesthood on May 6, 1967, by Bishop Ernest J. Primeau, at St. Joseph Cathedral in Manchester. Fr. Klatka served as temporary associate pastor of St. John the Evangelist Church, Concord, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Concord. He was associate pastor of St. Mary Church, Rochester, and later was temporary administrator. He was assigned administrator of St. Thomas Aquinas High School. Father Klatka was also temporary administrator of St. Peter Church, Farmington. Afterwards, he served as associate pastor at St. Pius X Church, Manchester. Fr. Klatka served as pastor of

St. Rose of Lima Church, Littleton, with its mission of Christ the King in Bethlehem as well as the Mission Church at Our Lady of the Snows, Franconia. Later, he served as temporary administrator of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, Manchester. In addition, he served at Camp Fatima & Camp Bernadette. Fr. Klatka retired from active ministry in 2006. He was assistant director of the Diocesan camps; director of the youth activities with the Dover Deanery and chaplain to the Sierra Club. He was a member of the Concord Area Drug Action Committee. Fr. Klatka served several terms as dean of the Franconia Deanery and as a member of the Presbyteral Council. For many years, he was a Diocesan Consultor. Fr. Klatka was an avid sports fan, especially of the Boston Red Sox. He enjoyed skiing, hiking, weight-training, and riding his motorcycle. He wintered in Fort Myers, Florida and loved spending time at the beach enjoying the sunshine and warmth. While in Florida, he served at St. Columkille Church as well as ministering to the sick at local hospitals. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Joseph Cathedral, with Bishop Peter A. Libasci presiding.

✙ Fr. Thomas V. Walsh, SMS'67, (Worcester), died on April 9, 2015, at the age of 75. He was ordained to the priesthood on May 4, 1967, by Bishop Bernard J. Flanagan at Ascension Church in Worcester. He served associate pastor assignments at St. Louis Parish in Webster, St. Paul Cathedral Parish and St. Margaret Mary Parish, both in Worcester, and St. Rose of Lima Parish in Northborough. He served as chaplain for UMass Medical Center in Worcester before being named in 1983 as pastor of St. Mark Parish in Sutton. In 1989 he was named pastor of St. John's Parish in Clinton, where he served for the next 25 years. He retired in 2004. Bishop McManus celebrated a Mass of Christian Burial at St. John the Evangelist Church.

✙ Fr. Robert R. Schulze, SCC'63, PS'65 and SMS'69, (Trenton), died on February 24, 2015, at the age of 71. He was ordained to the priesthood on May 31, 1969, in St. Mary of the Assumption Cathedral, Trenton, by Bishop George W. Ahr. As parochial vicar, he served in four parishes. Following his parish assignments, Fr. Schulze embarked on 20 years of service with the United States Federal Bureau of Prisons with chaplaincy assignments to Federal Correctional Institution, Milan, MI and Otisville, NY. Further assignments included Northeast regional director based in Philadelphia, and assistant director of the Federal Bureau of Chaplains, Washington, DC. His final assignment prior to retirement was as director of the chaplaincy program at FCI Fort Dix. Upon returning to the Trenton Diocese, Fr. Schulze was appointed director of the newly-established diocesan Office of Jail and Prison Ministry. Following his retirement in 2012, Fr. Schulze's vision for outreach to the incarcerated continued under the auspices of the diocesan Department of Pastoral Care. A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated at St. Monica Church in Jackson.

Friends

✙ Pamela J. DeAngelis, Executive Assistant to the Rector from 1994 – 2012, died peacefully on July 19, 2015. Pam was a hardworking, dedicated member of the St. Mary's family whose loss is greatly felt. Pam is survived by her husband of 48 years, Bill; daughters Courtney DeAngelis Morfeld and her husband Ian and Dana DeAngelis Bowerson and her husband Andrew; grandchildren Josephine Morfeld, Aiden Bowerson and Liliana Morfeld; sisters Paula Novak (Jim), Renee Beach (Alan), and Denise Freeburger; and many nieces and nephews. A memorial Mass was celebrated at St. Joseph Church, Fullerton, with Fr. Thomas R. Hurst, P.S.S. preaching the homily.

✙ William L. Gaudreau, long time board member, died on July 5, 2015. Bill was on the board for over a decade and was the principal architect in designing both the Center for Continuing Formation and the Library expansion/Associated Archives. Bill was instrumental in virtually every physical improvement to this historic Seminary since 1980. Bill's last gift to St. Mary's was the design of the site enhancements to the front entrance of the Seminary building including the memorial fountain. There is a plaque in the balustrade with his dedication to his own father and to Fr. Leavitt who worked so very closely with Bill over the years. A funeral Mass was celebrated in the St. Mary's Seminary Chapel.

✙ Bob Laytham, father of Rev. Dr. Brent Laytham, Dean, Ecumenical Institute of Theology, died on July 24, 2015. Born in Macon, MO, and a USAF veteran, Bob lived over 50 years as a teacher, pilot, farmer and business owner in Neosho. He is survived by his wife, June, of 57 years, sons Brent (Missy), Todd (Michelle) and Cris (Kathy) and eight grandchildren. Visitation and funeral were celebrated at College Church in Olathe, KS.

✙ Marie Logan Lerch, mother of Betty Visconage, VP, Institutional Advancement and Human Resources, died on June 28, 2015, she was 90. Mrs. Lerch, a native of Savannah, GA, graduated from Notre Dame of Maryland University in 1947. Former president of the Maryland Colonial Society, she was a devout Catholic who was very active as a volunteer for 53 years at the Cathedral of Mary Our Queen. In addition to Betty, she is survived by two other daughters, Marie and Ellen, seven grandchildren and one great-grandson.

THE HERITAGE SOCIETY

St. Mary's Seminary & University established the Heritage Society in 1990 to honor alumni and friends who value our past and are committed to our present and future. By including St. Mary's in their gift and estate plans, this special group will enable the Seminary to continue the strong tradition of academic and theological excellence which began in 1791.

Please consider joining the alumni members of the Heritage Society:

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

Many alums, friends and benefactors ask about gift giving opportunities at St. Mary's Seminary and The Ecumenical Institute of Theology. If you are interested in making a gift, the following may be helpful to you.

On-line Giving

We now gratefully accept donations to the annual fund on-line via PayPal.

We are now able to accept both one-time and recurring gifts on-line!

Giving to the Annual Fund

The Annual Fund of both St. Mary's Seminary and The Ecumenical Institute helps support ongoing operations on an annual basis. Your gifts enable us to provide the best possible programs for our seminarians and the men and women enrolled in the E.I.

Visit www.stmarys.edu and click on On-line Giving in the left sidebar to see how you can help.
