ESSAYS: The Pinkard Scholars Program Admissions Committee members are interested in learning more about you. Grades and scores tell us many things about your academic performance, but they tell us little about the questions that intrigue you or the way you think about them. Therefore, we would like you to write two essays. You must answer the following question for your first essay. There are no right or wrong responses to these questions.

- What interests you most about the Pinkard Scholars Program and why do you want to attend?
 - a) Share a story that exemplifies your faith journey.
 - b) Identify questions that are important to you.

Choose one of the following questions for your second essay.

- Identify someone you know or admire who has made a difference in the world. How, specifically, has this person influenced your life? What are you currently doing that you really care about, and why is it important to you?
- What are you currently doing that you really care about, and why is it important to you? Who else is involved with you in this activity?
- Describe yourself from the outside in—that is, tell us how others might describe you. Then tell what you consider to be important about yourself that others might miss (e.g., convictions, qualities, feelings, spiritual or religious experiences). Identify someone you know or admire who has made a difference in this world. How, specifically, has this person influenced your life?

I certify that all of the above information is correct to the best of my knowledge and that the enclosed essays are my work alone. In order to participate in the Pinkard Scholars Program, I understand that I must successfully complete my sophomore year of high school and plan to enter my junior year in the fall of 2024. If accepted and if I choose to attend, I agree to participate for the duration of the program and to abide by the rules and regulations of the Pinkard Scholars Program. By typing my name in the space below, I hereby freely and voluntarily waive my rights of access to any information contained on the Recommendation Form, included as part of this application, that the statement shall remain confidential and that I grant permission for my Academic Record Form and Transcript to be released by high school officials for confidential use by the Youth Theological Studies Program at St. Mary's Seminary & University.

Name of Applicant _____ Date _____

By typing my name in the space above, I understand and agree that this form of electronic signature has the same legal force and effect as a manual signature.
