

H600 THE HISTORY OF CHRISTIANITY IN ECUMENICAL PERSPECTIVE

Instructor	Dr. Stephen Lloyd
Schedule	Monday, 6:00 – 8:30 pm online
Description	This course offers a survey of the history of Christianity from the apostolic age to the present. This course pays particular attention to the development of different Christian traditions across history and around the world, and it will explore conversations and debates among these diverse expressions of Christian faith.
Requirements	Students should expect to read 775 pages in this course.
	There are three writing assignments in this course, totaling 25 pages.
	There is one in-class presentation.

Required Texts:

Author and Title (Press, Year, Edition)	Cost	Pages to be read
Mark Noll et al., Turning Points (Baker Academic Press, 2022, 4 th Edition) 978-1540964885	$25	275
Readings in the History of Christianity, Volume 1, eds. William Placher and Derek Nelson (Westminster John Knox Press, 2015) 978-0664239336	$20	250
Readings in the History of Christianity, Volume 2, eds. William Placher and Derek Nelson (Westminster John Knox Press, 2017) 978-0664239343	$20	250