

Singing God's Praise: The New English Translation of the Liturgy of the Hours

Join this four-day workshop that will present all of the options provided in the new translation of the Liturgy of the Hours.

Priests, deacons, musicians and parish staff who wish to begin the practice of praying the Liturgy of the Hours daily in the parish, will benefit from this thorough presentation and discussion.

The workshop will include a series of six conferences about what is new in the 2027 edition of the Liturgy of Hours and how priests, deacons and parish musicians can introduce common, public celebrations of Morning and Evening Prayer in the parish.

Also, the gathering will be an excellent opportunity for networking and sharing strategies and plans for implementation in your parish.

PRESENTER

Christopher Carstens

Christopher Carstens, director of the Office for Sacred Worship in the Diocese of La Crosse, Wisconsin, serves as a consultant to the USCCB's Committee on Divine Worship.

He also is a visiting faculty member at the Liturgical Institute at the University of St. Mary of the Lake in Mundelein, Illinois and director of Adoremus: Society for the Renewal of the Sacred Liturgy.

Known as one of the voices on The Liturgy Guys podcast, he also is author of A Devotional Journey into the Mass and A Devotional Journey into the Easter Mystery (Sophia), as well as Principles of Sacred Liturgy: Forming a Sacramental Vision (Hillenbrand Books). Along with Fr. Boniface Hicks, he has coauthored a book on the Liturgy of the Hours to be published by Word on Fire and available in January 2027.
