

The Center for Continuing Formation is pleased to invite you to a celebratory book launch of

“The Diaconate Revisited”

by Msgr. Marc Caron

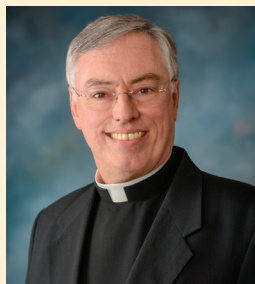

Published by Catholic University of America Press, the book discusses questions and developments about the diaconate since the Second Vatican Council.

The book has been described as “the most accurate and succinct expression of the current sacramental and theological state of the diaconate in the last 60 years.”

Plan to attend this informative event that includes a presentation by the author, discussion, and refreshments.

Books will be available for sale.

The event is free but please register here.
