

The Eucharistic Identity and Mission of the Deacon: A Retreat for Deacons and Wives

Friday – April 23

4:00 p.m.	Arrival
5:30 p.m.	Dinner - Forum Café
6:30 p.m.	Evening Prayer - St. Charles Chapel
7:00 p.m.	Conference I: The Holy Eucharist and Diakonia —The Forum
8:15 p.m.	Eucharistic Adoration

Saturday – April 24

8:00 a.m.	Morning Prayer—St. Charles Chapel
8:30 a.m.	Breakfast - Forum Café
10:00 a.m.	Conference II - The Holy Eucharist: A Presence and Sacrifice Sacrament —The Forum
11:30 a.m.	Mass - St. Charles Chapel
12:15 pm	Lunch - Forum Café
1:30 p.m.	Conference III - The Holy Eucharist: A Communion Sacrament - The Forum
2:30 p.m.	Silent Prayer and Reflection
4:00 p.m.	Confession available - oratory
5:00 p.m.	Evening Prayer - St. Charles Chapel
5:30 p.m.	Dinner - Forum Café

6:30 p.m.	Conference IV - The Holy Eucharist: A Sacrament to be Celebrated and Adored - The Forum
7:15 p.m.	Eucharistic Adoration

Sunday – April 25

8:00 a.m.	Mass and Morning Prayer - St. Charles Chapel
8:45 a.m.	Breakfast - Forum Café
9:30 a.m.	Conference V - The Holy Eucharist: A Sacrament to be Lived
11:00 a.m.	Departure

Retreat Master Bio

Roland Millare, STD serves as the Vice President of Curriculum and the Director of Clergy Initiatives for the St. John Paul II Foundation. He received a BA in Theology from Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio. He has a MA in Theological Studies from the Notre Dame Graduate School of Christendom College (Alexandria, VA) and a Licentiate (STL) and Doctorate in Sacred Theology (STD) in Dogmatic Theology (with a specialization in Sacramental Theology) from the University of St. Mary of the Lake (Mundelein, IL). Dr. Millare also serves as an adjunct professor of theology for permanent deacon candidates, seminarians, undergraduate and graduate students at the University of St. Thomas, St. Mary's Seminary, the Diocese of Fort Worth, the Pontifical College of the Josephinum, and the University of Dallas. He has published academic and popular articles for varying publications such as The Deacon, Antiphon, Nova et Vetera, and Adoremus Bulletin. He has published the book, A Living Sacrifice: Liturgy and Eschatology in Joseph Ratzinger (Emmaus Academic, 2022). Dr. Millare has led several retreats for deacons and their wives in dioceses throughout the country. Dr. Millare enjoys the gift of life and love with his beautiful wife Veronica and their three children.